NOTICE: Instructions for UG Third Semester Students – Multidisciplinary Examination

All UG Third Semester students appearing for the Multidisciplinary Examination (MDE) scheduled on Saturday, 31.10.2026, from 9:00 AM to 11:10 AM, are hereby instructed to follow the guidelines given below:

1. Reporting Time: Students must be present on the University campus at least one hour before the commencement of the examination, as already instructed.
2. Updated Seating Arrangement: The updated seating arrangement has been uploaded to the University website. Students are instructed to check their names and allotted classrooms before arriving for the examination.
3. Bench Numbering: No separate numbering will be done for the MDE examination. The bench numbers displayed in the classrooms are meant for regular (Core Subject) examinations. Therefore, students are instructed not to follow the existing bench numbering for the MDE examination.
4. Classroom Allocation: The seating arrangements will also be displayed on the doors of the respective classrooms. Students must check their names against the seating arrangement uploaded on the website and proceed to their assigned classrooms accordingly.
5. Examination Help Desk: Students are instructed to follow the above guidelines to locate their respective examination classrooms. In case they still face any difficulty in identifying their allotted classrooms, they are requested to report to the Examination Help Desk by 8:30 AM for assistance.

All students are requested to read and follow these instructions carefully to ensure the smooth conduct of the examination.
